Trinity Times

Our mission is to welcome all people to know and live as Christ in the world

August 2021

From the Dean's Pen ...

Dear Members and Friends of Trinity Cathedral,

Grace and Peace be with you from our risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Alleluia! Amen.

It is wonderful to know that we are beginning to see finishing and final touches with the Cathedral interior renovation. However, a few challenges face us as we come into the home stretch. Despite the challenges, we continue to choose being prayerful, hopeful, and optimistic with these concluding details. Our journey to this point has been an excellent and positive experience for all parties: us, the contractors, and architect. Collectively, we rejoice in what has been achieved! The results are spectacular!

Challenge #1: As the cathedral work comes to its final stages, a decision has been made to paint and carpet the crypt which has not been touched since 1999, following the New Year's Day flood of 1997. This will enable both spaces to be compatible with a fresh, welcoming, and bright look. This however will take us up to the week of September 11th.

Challenge #2: With the nave renovation, safety concerns were addressed, and a decision was made to incorporate a fire sprinkler system. There is also a great insurance benefit with this installation. What was not made known until recently, when we did not pass the City Fire Marshall Inspection, is that by updating this system (which we already had in the crypt from the 1999 work) everything must be installed to today's codes. We are having to add multiple "horns" and "strobes" to the main nave and all side rooms. Since wiring and painting have already been completed, we are blessed that these additions can be wireless. The challenge is now this equipment must be ordered and installed, which will take approximately four weeks. This work must be completed and approved by the Fire Marshal before we are able to be granted a Certificate of Occupancy.

Challenge #3: Moving back into the Cathedral space will be a monumental task, and many hands will be needed. Committee and program leaders met on July 21st to create a schedule for transitions and unpacking. Items from O'Brien's Storage will be returned on September 13th, and plans will be in place to move items to assigned areas for access and delivery. In the process there will be further items to dispose of, items for relocation elsewhere, and an overriding desire to keep things uncluttered, and then locating places for in-house storage.

We are so grateful for all our leaders and for their tireless and enthusiastic support as we anticipate our move back into the Cathedral space and opening worship for an 11:00 AM Eucharist of "Giving Thanks" on Sunday, September 19th. We will have much to celebrate and for which to be thankful! God has blessed us richly beyond expectations, and we rejoice in these accomplishments in being a sacred place for many.

With gratitude and great blessings,

Father William+

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Bookstore

Bible and Books is one of the Bible studies at Trinity. It meets Sunday mornings at 9 a.m., all sessions on Zoom since the beginning of Covid. My job is to choose the study books that form the basis of the discussions; participants then get their own copies at a bookstore. For the first two books I merely asked the group to “yea” or “nay” my choices. For our third book however, since I had gotten to know the participants and been impressed with their caliber, I decided to give them more say in the book choices, so I picked several books, written by three authors. All authors were either Episcopalian or Anglican, as that seemed to be fitting for a group at Trinity Episcopal. I sent an email with the choices and asked for votes. The votes trickled in but there were no “winners.” We were not reaching a consensus. Along the way, one of the participants told me he had never studied the Acts of the Apostles and had found a study guide for it. I floated that idea to the group, and bingo! We had consensus. I had to laugh though when I discovered that the author of this study on Acts is a Presbyterian minister who teaches at an (ELCA) Lutheran seminary. No Episcopalian authors this round!

I tell you this story because having completed fifteen months with you under the terms of the Concordat (the Lutheran-Episcopal agreement on sharing clergy), I am delighted in the ways you have accepted me and delighted with the general openness I sense among you to welcome and appreciate the gifts from a variety of Christian traditions. I recognize that many---perhaps, most---of you who are now a part of Trinity’s community are not cradle Episcopalians and perhaps that contributes to this openness that I see. However, I think there is more to it than that. I sense a willingness to listen to others’ experiences of God’s Spirit blowing through our community and the world. You could all have been rigid fundamentalists, attempting to impose your former traditions on this community which is Trinity Episcopal. Yet you have not done so, choosing rather to wade into the richness of this place and take your place as a contributing member of this community of Christ’s gathered people.

Since you have read this far, may I tell you a bit about this upcoming book? The book is Acts: Catching Up with the Spirit by Matthew L. Skinner (Nashville: Abingdon Press, 2020). In his Introduction, Dr. Skinner writes, “I enjoy reading the Book of Acts, but sometimes it scares me. . . What scares me is the sense that the story in Acts often seems too easy. Groups of believers agree with one another and their leaders a lot.. Faith does not have to grapple with doubts.” Skinner goes on to relate his own situation. “My personal experience of faith in Christ involves much more trial and error, unanswered prayer, cranky congregations, valuable lessons learned from other religious traditions, and even dark nights of the soul.” Skinner then circles back to his joy in reading Acts. “That explains why I have so much fun wrestling with Acts: it makes me think and prompts me to consider the ancient church’s experiences as well as my own” (pp. 11-12). If this sounds interesting to you, come join us!

Music Notes from Dr. Gordon

Nevada Gay Men's Chorus - Northern Nevada Pride Festival – July 25, 2021

"I believe the children are our future, teach them well and let them lead the way. Show them all the beauty they possess inside. Give them a sense of Pride to make it easier. Let the children's laughter remind us how we used to be." George Benson

As a child, I listened obsessively to my 45 record of George Benson's The Greatest Love of All. His song introduced me to the concept of pride, the importance of self-love, and the need to instill pride in all the children in our lives. Over the years I've learned to be proud of my African-American heritage and although particularly challenging, I'm now very proud to be both gay and Christian.

This past weekend, I was honored to serve as the guest conductor for The Nevada Gay Men's Chorus, as we performed for the annual Reno Pride festivities. From our first rehearsal to the actual performance, it was a marvelous experience. The singers exuded such energy and warmth as they sang The National Anthem, Bohemian Rhapsody, and classics by Cher, Britney Spears, and Lady Gaga. The late July heat and smokey skies couldn't hinder the excitement and the audience responded with palpable glee!

This past month, I've been thinking a lot about what makes me feel proud. I'm incredibly proud of the way Trinity has persevered thru the challenges of COVID-19. Pushed to the limits of our comfort zones, through ever-changing circumstances, we've found new resiliency and continued to thrive through God's grace. I'm very proud of the colleagues I get to work with each day and for the way they share multiple gifts with our community. I am proud of our two wardens, whose dedication and sacrifice for our good cannot be recognized enough. I was proud of how we recently hosted the bishop candidates and diocesan officers, which provided a glimpse into our future as a cathedral. Finally, I am proud of our Sunday School and Youth families who've made our Summer Wednesday evening services a deeply satisfying and worshipful experience. I urge all in our parish who enjoy a less formal service, with more contemporary music, to join us on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm, in the Parish Hall.

As people of faith, PRIDE is something to cultivate but also something worthy of serious caution. The results of too much pride, haughtiness, or hubris can be truly disastrous. Solomon admonishes in Proverbs 16 that "pride goes before a fall" and several other prophets warn of the potential dangers.

Now entering the home stretch of our Cathedral renovation, I pray we feel a sense of pride for all that God is doing in us and through us, for His glory. I pray we will continue to adapt, grow, and fulfill our calling to proclaim the Gospel and make disciples in Reno, Sparks, and to the ends of the earth.

Renovation UpdateAltar Flowers

Cathedral Renovation... Heading to the Finished Line!

The renovation of the Cathedral building that began in January is fast moving towards accomplishment! The work on the main floor area is scheduled for completion by August 11. However, the requirement by the Reno Fire Department to have a fully upgraded alarm system on the first floor could push the actual completion date. We are hopeful the necessary equipment will arrive soon and be installed quickly.

The crypt area will receive a fresh coat of paint along with new carpet and upgraded electrical outlets and switches. This work will be completed by September 10. On August 23, the Cathedral pipe organ will begin to be reinstalled, and the Philip Manwell organ will be moved from storage on the Parish Hall stage to the Bishop Lewis Chapel.

Parish ministries have begun to organize for the return to the Cathedral building. There will be unpacking of boxes that are returned from the storage warehouse as well as locating furniture in its proper location.

A new sound system is now in place and video cameras installed so we may continue live streaming our services. New digital lighting will help conserve electricity, and for the first time there is air-condition cooling the building rather than a swamp cooler.

Our first service, currently scheduled for September 19, provides an opportunity to welcome parishioners back into the Cathedral space and the occasion to thank those who have helped bring this project to fruition.

ALTAR FLOWERS

Throughout the summer months as we continue to worship with limited seating in the Parish Hall, we have an open calendar for sponsorship of altar flowers. Please call the office to make arrangements for hosting altar flowers in honor or memory of loved ones or milestones in your individual or family lives. $50 per vase is the suggested contribution. 2 vases are available each Sunday.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER GROUP

"Our ultimate goal is to integrate the active and contemplative dimensions of reality within us and around us, which some mystics call ever-present awareness, enlightenment, or waking up. To handle the details of living a human life without being distracted from this primary vision is not attained through thinking, but through what might be called the practice of just being. To take time just to be, which is to do nothing but be in God's presence for a regular period of time every day seems to be the shortest access to the mystery that is beyond any conceptual consideration."

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE A PART OF THE CIRCLE OF FRIENDS?

Circle of Friends is a group of about ten people who commit to daily check-in phone calls with each other. This is how it works: You are given one name to call.

You call this person, usually in the morning, to check in on them; how they are, what's going on for the day, etc. If for some reason you can't reach your person, there's a system in place to do a further check. In turn, you also receive a phone call from someone who checks in with you. Every so often, the leader of the group switches the names around, so you have a "new" person to call and you have a "new" person checking in with you.

If you would like to join this group, contact Dorothy Walrath, 775-829-0568 or walrath1@aol.com.

THE NEW DAILY DEVOTIONALS ARE IN!

The current issue of Day by Day, for August-October 2021 has arrived! Please stop by the Parish office to pick up a copy or call the office to request to have it mailed to you.

You may also pick up a copy in the Parish Hall when you come for worship. They are placed on the entrance hall table.

COVID PROCEDURE UPDATE

In light of the new CDC Guidelines and Gov. Steve Sisolak's announcement on July 28th, Washoe County will be returning to wearing masks indoors. The increase in cases of the Delta variant, especially among the unvaccinated, has created this nationwide change. We will continue our present practice with in-person worship to wear masks while we gather at 11:00AM Sundays and 6:30PM on Wednesdays. We thank you for helping others to be safe as we continue to practice love and charity for our neighbor.
