"Our mission is to welcome all people to know and live as Christ in the world"

From the Dean's Pen ...

Dear Friends and Family of Trinity Cathedral,

Grace and Peace to you from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
Amen.

These are difficult days. In dealing with a pandemic that is yet still to peak, with self isolation, social distancing, and an abandonment of in-person worship, I find a tension between not knowing what to say since the information and knowledge changes daily, and times of wanting to say too much that may not be appropriate. Each day presents a myriad of emotions I'm not prepared to deal with, and quite often, not willing or wanting to deal with them. I'm tempted to curl up in bed and wish it all away. It is at times such as these that faith is truly tested and we are challenged to be who and what we claim to be—the Body of Christ!

I was ordained only eight months when, on March 28, 1979, the Three Mile Island Nuclear Reactor partial meltdown occurred in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. I lived within the five-mile radius; the parish was in the eight-mile radius of it. It was a time of fear because no one knew what to do since radiation is an unseen reality. The impression I live with to this day is how important it was for me to step up as a spiritual leader—in fact, that following Sunday our churches were packed. What bothered me most, however, was how some spiritual leaders retreated and abandoned their parishes at that critical time.

Our leadership is doing all that we can do to be connected and to be sharing the Good News of comfort, hope, perseverance, and life. I am most grateful for the gift of Stewart Campbell of LoadedTV.com who has stepped up to volunteer his video production services to record our worship. The week of March 16-22 enabled us to record a Thursday noon Service of the Word with Healing Prayers, and on Saturday morning a Service of the Word for access to our Sunday liturgies. That success has given me confidence to move forward as we will record each week a Thursday and weekend Service, but now with Holy Communion. Even though a virtual experience, hearing the comforting words of the Great Thanksgiving is a way to experience the presence of Christ with words in both preaching and celebrating "Word and Sacrament."

Each day is a new day. My faith and relationship with Christ and this community of faith, the Body of Christ, enables me to rise above the muck and mire of our present reality, knowing that I am nurtured and sustained with a Gospel of hope and life. These are not normal days and we learn to deal with them creatively and with a great deal of hope!

With blessings for a Holy Lent as we anticipate Easter!

Online Worship | Sunday Offerings | Vestry Retreat

What we are doing to stay connected...

- A Sunday Worship Service is being streamed to Facebook and YouTube to view at your convenience. Folks who are not Facebook users can still watch the videos on the Trinity Cathedral Facebook page. You Google Trinity Reno Facebook page, select Reno Trinity Cathedral Facebook and click on videos in the left hand column, and then you will see the videos listed.
- Live streaming on Facebook the Thursday Eucharist with Healing Prayers at 12:10 PM.
- Father Rick created a daily devotional on our Facebook page titled "Pray, Think, Do" to support us spiritually and emotionally during this pandemic. All Clergy associated with our Cathedral, Fr. William, Fr. Rick, Rev. Mikayla, Fr. Julius, Rev. Ruth, Fr. John Shoaf and Fr. Bob Swope, now contribute to this page in daily rotation, except Sundays.
- Rev. Mikayla Dunfee is streaming a Taize' Service at 5:00 PM on Wednesdays, and a Children's' Story Time later that same evening.
- Father Rick Millsap has made phone calls to check in with senior members of the parish.
- Six of our Vestry members have divided the parish roll and are reaching out to all our members to check on their well being.

Please pray for our clergy and leadership—we are most thankful for their ministries!

What about my Sunday Offering? Folks have been contacting the Office and/or David Morgan asking about how to make their pledge offerings while the Cathedral is only open to staff members and our Sack Lunch volunteers. We encourage you to continue to observe physical distancing and either mail your pledge offering to: Trinity Cathedral, P.O. Box 2246, Reno, NV 89505, or, to go online to our website, www.trinityreno.org, and make your pledge offering by clicking on the green "Give" box at the top of the home page. This is a secure site and an easy way to continue your faithful giving during these uncertain times.

Vestry Retreat of March 14

The Vestry held an extremely productive day-long retreat in March to develop plans for the coming year. Facilitated by the Rev. Neysa Ellgren Shepley, Canon to the Ordinary for the Diocese of Oregon, the retreat focused on ways to meet challenges and opportunities during the next few months, which will be shaped by the beginning of the Cathedral renovation, changes in clergy, and uncertainty with the coronavirus pandemic. In its discussions, the vestry focused on several areas including these:

- A desire for renewed emphasis on pastoral care (including ways to expand connections among Cathedral membership as well as to homebound members);
- Ensuring Christian formation for children and adults continues and grows; and
- Identifying potential small groups to provide social and support opportunities.

The Vestry finished the session by adopting courses of action for these areas and committed to ensuring transparency and open communications among the Cathedral community as they move forward. The Vestry is very excited to have concrete plans for these important areas. Please talk with a Warden or Vestry member if you would like further information in the meantime.

Pastoral Care

The north wind is blowing...

THE REV. CANON RICK MILLSAP

ASSOCIATE PRIEST FOR PASTORAL CARE & PARISH LIFE

"But still the clever north wind was not satisfied. It spoke of towns yet to be visited, friends in need yet to be discovered, battles yet to be fought..." — The movie Chocolat, 2000

Most often in life, the Holy Spirit does not appear as a blinding flash of light. Rarely does it work like it did when Jesus barreled over the future Apostle Paul on the highway into Damascus with a flash-bang, knocked him off his donkey, struck him blind, and then gave him a new purpose in life. No, for most of us it is just that quiet sense of a new wind blowing through our lives. That is how the Holy Spirit is often described in Scripture... as wind. Sometimes it is the hurricane-force winds of Pentecost, but most times, it is just the soft, gentle blowing breeze outside of Elijah's cave. It is a feeling hard to pin down, a yearning, a gentle nudging.

"There are not words to express my love and admiration for all of you."

Now, after 24 years journeying with you, the wind is blowing again in my life. Decisions such as retirement are difficult, especially when you are a person like me who is even intimidated by the towering shelves of butter at my grocery store — there are just too many options. But I do think sometimes we hesitate to make a choice because we worry too much about making the exact right one. While there are always obviously bad choices in life, and we have been given brains and wisdom to think about the pros and cons, still, it seems more likely we have ten or more perfectly good choices branching out from any given moment. Some choices may be better, some worse, but all are equally blessed by God. It is my impression God may nudge us with the Spirit, but then is curious... which way will we choose?

With my retirement this Easter, the wind is nudging me into a new phase of my life where I plan to focus on two things I love: playing cello and writing. I have kept a blog since 2009, but have been terrible about updating it in the past few years. I hope to change that now that I will have more time.

There are no words to express my love and admiration for all of you. You gave me a spiritual home here at Trinity over two decades ago, and we have walked together beside still waters and, at times, through troubled ones. After a long pastorate, the Church asks priests to step away from their churches for at least a year both to give the new person an opportunity to establish their new ministry and to help us let go. But I'm not leaving Reno. As Jonathan Livingston Seagull once said, the whole point of our faith is we are overcoming time and space. And when you do that, all that is left is here and now. And in the middle of here and now, don't you think we will probably run into each other once or twice? Love each other. Be kind. Keep the faith. And what blessing is mine to give, I leave with you.

Rick +

Children, Youth & Families

Art, Music, & Godly Play

Spring has sprung in Godly Play this month! Sunday School at home is in full swing. Please reach out to Rev. Mikayla if you have questions about your materials.

Let's be the Church in the world... and at home!

Well, folks, here we are! Covid-19 has taken control of our work and social lives, and made shopping a competitive sport. I hope it hasn't got you down too much. I have honestly enjoyed the way the social distancing and self-quarantining has stretched our imaginations in terms of what Church can be. I love reading out loud and so reading bedtime stories and saying nighttime prayers with the children through live stream has quickly become one of my favorite parts of the day. Church is all around! And I'm sure God is inviting each of us to imagine anew how to be Christ's hands and feet in the world.

*Your sister in Christ,
Mikayla+*

Outreach and Adult Education

Thank you for helping our homeless neighbors through the winter!

Every day more of our Trinity families and neighbors find their backs up against the wall. Rent is skyrocketing. Thousands are stuck in weekly motels. Homelessness is on the rise. The status quo is literally killing people. While feeding the poor is something we do regularly at Trinity Cathedral, we do more to reach the roots of homelessness in our community.

We want to thank the following volunteers who gave their time this winter to staff the Overflow Shelter Tent!

We continue TO THANK the Church Musician Search Committee: Howard Bennett and James Lamb for co-chairing, and Josette Dornoff, Barbara Small and Margaret Zuccarini for their faithful service of over 300 hours of work!

On Amazon, new copies are available for $11.00, Kindle versions are $9.99, and used copies are available from $6.56.

March 16 Vestry Summary

The meeting was conducted by video conference and opened with prayer at 6:09 p.m. followed by reading of the Cathedral Mission Statement and shared blessings. The agenda (with adoptions), minutes of the February 24 vestry meeting, and February Financial Report were approved. The Treasurer cautioned that, while income looks high in early months, it is because of prepaid pledges. He reported that Cathedral investments will not be affected by what is happening in the market. Margaret Zuccarini expressed interest in stewardship of the KIVA account. The FFA Committee Report: The FFA is studying the Cathedral's health insurance program needs for both clergy and staff and will report more information at the next vestry meeting. Lynne Charlat, Junior Warden, is seeking a proposal from a local moving and storage company for storing major items from the cathedral space during the renovation, including the organ console and pipes. Lynne also reported that Dianda Construction has accepted the Vestry letter to serve as general contractor for both the cathedral renovation and the construction of the new parish hall. Dianda is moving forward with seeking subcontractor bids. We have not determined a date when actual renovation work will begin. Regarding the proposed project adjacent to the Cathedral, Lynne reported CAI has received permits and started geological studies on the land. Ministry Reports: The Parish Council met on March 9 and discussed space needs for meeting and storage and the moving logistics. Council members were asked to provide their space needs within the next week. Property Committee: Lynne Charlat reported that a committee will be formed to manage the packing/moving effort. David Chute will be included in the committee as he is coordinating his Ministry of Service volunteers in this effort. The Vestry decided not to hold a rummage sale in April. The Dean reported the Annual Bishop's Clergy Conference is postponed to Summer or Fall. The Ecumenical Downtown Group is working on Palm Sunday service which is contingent on effects of the Coronavirus. The List of Newcomers for Easter Vigil includes five baptisms, eight transfers, nine Affirmation of Baptism, and two seekers. If we cannot have the Easter Vigil, then the events could happen during the Easter season or Pentecost. The Food for the Poor visit by Mother Carola van Wrangel is cancelled. Fr. William is engaged exploring potential people to call for the two positions that will be open. Vestry: The Vestry discussed the Retreat held on March 14 and affirmed it was helpful and supported the direction of our parish. Administration: The Musician Search Committee provided five candidate names to the Dean, and he has selected three for onsite interviews. Vestry discussed whether to have the interviews because of the travel concerns with COVID-19. Jim and Howard will have conversation with the candidates and discuss how to proceed. Lynne reported the City of Reno has filed an Answer to the lawsuit and there is no further information. Old Business: There was not old business. New Business: Vestry discussed precautions being taken and coordinating necessary elements of services the church provides during the Coronavirus crisis. The next meeting is Monday, April 20.

Addressing Anti-Semitism in the Gospel of John and the teachings of the Church.

This Holy Week, Rev. Mikayla is presenting a short workshop and conversation about the prevalence of Anti-Semitism in historical Christian teaching and modern society. As we re-read John's passion story this year, how might God be inviting us to hear it anew? This workshop will take place online on the evening of Wednesday, April 8th. Watch for a Blast email for information on how to access the online meeting.
