Transition Update

The Vestry has been very engaged in evaluating results of the recent parish survey conducted by HolyCow! Consultants. Vestry members and cathedral clergy and staff devoted two full weekends in October meeting with Robyn Strain from HolyCow! Consultants to review and discuss the survey results. In addition, Robyn had more than 20 individual meetings with the current wardens and vestry members, cathedral clergy and staff, parishioners, as well as former wardens. Vestry members and cathedral clergy and staff met again on November 20-21 with Robyn to begin the work of defining the desired qualifications and characteristics for a new rector and dean.

When a rector departs there begins a period of transition during which the parish enters a time of discernment as it looks toward a future call for a new rector. In the case of Trinity, since we are the cathedral church for the Episcopal Diocese of Nevada, this discernment process will also include the selection of someone who will not only be a parish rector but also the cathedral dean. The discernment process may be lengthy, as some of you may recall previous rector searches at Trinity, but it is important to ensuring the best candidate is selected.

The Canons of the diocese and the Bylaws of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral provide that in the absence of a rector the vestry is responsible for the ongoing operations of the Cathedral. In addition, the Bishop's office has an oversight responsibility when a parish is without a rector. The Rev. Catherine Gregg, Canon to the Ordinary, has been extremely helpful in providing counsel and guidance as we enter this transition

Confessions of a Covid-holic

Seven-year old boy to his mother, "Mom, can you teach me to play Pokemon?"

Mom: "No, I can't. I don't know how to play Pokemon, but Uncle Tom does."

Boy: "Mom, can you set up a Zoom meeting so Uncle Tom can teach me?"

Mom: "Absolutely!"

Two years ago, most of us would not have considered this solution to the problem above. Covid has given us some gifts. We have lost much, been destabilized, become fearful and crabby, and often long for the way life was before Covid. However, there are some things I relished during the early days of the pandemic. For instance, I actually liked not having to go to some events. Not that I disliked those events (I had chosen them and often paid to attend), but sometimes it got to be a bit much. Life had become so hectic, with days when I came home, dropped my things, gathered up a new set and was out the door to the next activity. On my day off I would spend the entire day putting away a week's worth of stuff, not getting to rest or do something fun, and then start it all over again. Covid shutdowns were like a snow day in the Mid-West when I was growing up. We got to stay home and putter around. It was a lovely break from the rat race.

Transition Update

From Canon Ruth

Finance Report

process.

Canon Catherine is responsible for coordinating the search for an interim rector and dean. Recently she met with the wardens and several vestry members to discuss the role of the diocese in this mutual process. She will work with us in developing a position description that will be posted on the Episcopal News Service (ENS). Candidates will submit their information to the diocese office where the application will be evaluated including background checks. Qualified candidates' information will be submitted to Trinity for further consideration. The final selection of an interim rector and dean will be made by Trinity's Vestry.

The timeline for selecting an interim rector and dean could be short or long. The posting for the position will be submitted to ENS during December. Depending on the response, Trinity may have several names submitted by the end of January, although that might be a bit optimistic. Once a candidate is selected, there will be time for negotiations related to compensation and relocation expenses. Accordingly, We should not expect an interim to be in place immediately after selection. During the coming weeks, we will provide updates on the search process in The Carillon and in the monthly Trinity Times newsletter. In the meantime, please feel free to reach out to either the Senior or Junior Warden for questions. We appreciate your patience, your understanding, your prayers, and your support as we begin both search processes for an interim and for a new rector and dean.

During early Covid I loved dressing more simply, not needing to shop as much, not being so busy having to sort and store and use stuff. I stayed home and read some of the books I already had. I thought driving to the post office to mail a letter was a lovely treat. I avoided the freeways, instead choosing the shorter and slower route. I slept more. I cooked, using a proper recipe from a cookbook which—you got it—I already owned. I walked the Truckee River.

When the ancient Jews left Judah and lived in Babylon they missed terribly living in the land of promise, worshiping in the temple, having their own king. However, they got some new things: houses of study and worship in their local communities, an explosion of Sabbath activities, and their holy scriptures collected into a bible. Judaism became portable and that portability has stood them well over the centuries. In time they gave thanks for these new things. It helped them endure the sadness they felt over the losses.

As you read this, we are just a week past Thanksgiving Day, still thinking of gratitude. I'm hoping that you have a list of gifts that Covid-time has given you. May you relish them and give thanks for them even as you continue to mourn the losses we have endured.

From Dr. Gary Gordon

Since my return to work on Nov. 20th, I've had the chance to meet several vestry members, families and individuals in person. It's been a joy to get to know more of my Trinity family as we worship and work together in various ministries. I'd also like to introduce you to some individuals who've had a profound impact on my life, especially related to the Advent Season. Pictured left, is my very dear friend Co-sette, who I've adopted as a sister. Cosette and I first met in 2006 but I'll pick up the story in 2012. Cos had relocated to Alameda, across the San Francisco Bay, and taken a job as assistant manager for the Alameda Free Public Library.

Missing her terribly, I flew out for the Thanksgiving holiday, my stay lasting thru Advent I. On that Sunday, Cos introduced me to St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Berkeley. We arrived early and before the ushers allowed us to be seated, a large choir could be heard preparing for the service. To my amazement as the service began, I recall the choir outnumbered the attendees! In place of an opening hymn, the choir moved in a grand processional around the church and performed Peter Hallock's Advent Litany, with organ and hand bells. It was an incredibly moving worship experience! Following the service, I met George Emblom, the music director, members of the choir, and Jonathan Dimmock, renowned concert organist and frequent performer with the San Francisco Symphony. From our first meeting, George has encouraged my journey and included me in St. Mark's music ministry. In 2014, I sang with the choir on a trip to England, where we had week-long residencies at Norwich Cathedral and Wells Cathedral.

Jonathan Dimmock in recital at Legion of Honor (2012)

Recently, I was reminded our hymnal includes a tune named especially for St. Mark's, Berkeley. Advent Hymn #69 is "What is the crying at Jordan?" -- a reference to John the Baptist "crying in the wilderness." The melody was chosen by Norman Mealy from the Gaelic collection, Dànte Dé (Dublin 1928) but it included no tune name. Norman, who served as choirmaster at St. Mark's 1948-1962, was the first to use it in an American songbook. Norman also served as Professor of Church Music at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific – Episcopal (CDSP) from 1952-1987 and at the Graduate Theological Union from 1976-1987, also located in Berkeley. The text was written especially for this tune in the 1950s by Carol Christopher Drake, a former St. Mark's choir member. Last week, the author hosted an intimate gathering in her home to celebrate St. Mark's rich musical legacy.

Last July, when George and Jonathan's camping trip was de-toured due to excessive heat and smoke from wild fires, they made an impromptu visit to Reno, on their way back to San Francisco. They attended our Sunday service, raved about Ruth's preaching and our renovation, and once again they both were a huge encouragement to my new ministry at Trinity. Jonathan has promised to share his talent in an upcoming Pipes on the River concert.

Message from Judy:

I have had the same manger scene for the last 36 years. So many figures have been added through the years and it is hard to remember which piece goes where! So far, we have about 25 figures. The manger scene is the first decoration we put up each year. First, we put out the stable and animals, then the star, then Mary, Joseph, the empty manger, and the wiseman. On Christmas Eve, the baby Jesus is placed in the manger. As I stand back and look at the completed manger on Christmas Eve, I feel inspired to receive the peace and promise that Christmas brings.

This past year, I have received the peace and promise of Christmas through all of you. You have inspired me in so many ways. We have journeyed together-not always knowing where the journey would lead us. We made the love of God, self and others be our guiding star. Mary and Joseph set out on their journey-and the unexpected happened! O Holy Night! I thank all of you for lighting up my life with the joy and hope for today and throughout the year. You are all my perfect gift from God each day.

Christmas Blessings,

Judy

*God of dreamers and hope,
As we prepare for the coming of Jesus,
We ask for your blessings.
Give us grace to make room in our hearts
To welcome Jesus as we make our journey
With Mary and Joseph toward Christmas morning. Amen.

Mondays at Noon – Church Library

Understanding Christian Contemplation and Getting Started in Centering Prayer

Excerpts from The Path of Centering Prayer – Deepening Your Experience of God by David Frenette:

If you asked me for just one bit of advice about contemplation, I would say to practice the meaning of one word: amen. If you asked me how you could meditate, how you should relate to God, how you might pray, I would whisper, "Amen." If I remember only one simple thing at the end of my own life I hope it will be amen.

Amen means simply "so be it" or "let it be." With amen, your words and actions yield to God's presence.

The [2,000+] year old Christian contemplative tradition recognizes that in order to radically trust in a reality that you cannot see, you need to prepare yourself through actions, disciplines, and practices whose purpose, quite simply, is to bring you more easily to amen.

Jesus said, "When you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you" (Matthew 6:6).

THE CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

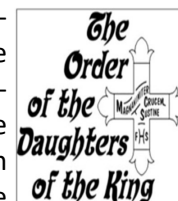

Circle of Friends is a group of about ten people who commit to daily check-in phone calls with each other. This is how it works: You are given one name to call. You call this person, usually in the morning, to check in on them; how they are, what's going on for the day, etc. If for some reason you can't reach your person, there's a system in place to do a further check. In turn, you also receive a phone call from someone who checks in with you. Every so often, the leader of the group switches the names around, so you have a "new" person to call and you have a "new" person checking in with you.

If you would like to join this group, contact Dorothy Walrath, 775-829-0568 or walrath1@aol.com.

UPDATE ON 2021 ANGEL TREE PROJECT

The Daughters of the King are glad to report that all of the 117 angels from the angel tree project have either been directly adopted by parishioners, or will have our volunteer shoppers buy gifts for them with money that has been donated to the angel tree project in lieu of shopping. We would like to have the wrapped bundles of three gifts for each child delivered to the parish hall no later than Friday, December 3rd. The Daughters will then be meeting over a few days for organizing the gift bundles, in preparation for delivering them to Stead Elementary School on December 13. Thank you to everyone who has so generously donated their time and money for this important project.

Annual Meeting Reports

Do you have an Annual Report to write? Have you sent in your Annual Report for the year 2021 for your particular ministry program? If not, please forward your report to the Cathedral office (info@trinityreno.org) as soon as possible.

Nominations Open for Leadership Opportunities

Are you interested in helping guide Trinity? Are you willing to speak your mind, vote your conscience and work toward consensus? Trinity is beginning its next chapter, so this is a great opportunity for additional leaders to fill several key positions that will be elected. The following positions are up for election at Trinity's Annual Meeting on January 30. If you have questions on any of these vacancies, please talk with a warden or vestry member.

Vestry Members: The vestry is the governing board at Trinity and has a responsibility for ensuring that the spiritual mission of the church is maintained, as well as for carrying out the more secular duties related to church property, finances and personnel. Five vacancies will be filled: 4 three-year terms and 1 one-year term. The vestry thrives on diversity in background, skills, and experience, so many different qualifications may make a parishioner an excellent candidate.

Endowment Board Trustee: Trinity's Endowment Board manages Trinity's endowment of more than $1 million. One vacancy will be filled. Unlike operational funds which are typically used for immediate needs, endowment funds are maintained on a long-term basis, providing support of the Trinity's mission into the future.

Delegates to Convention: The annual Convention of the Diocese of Nevada takes place in October, and Trinity elects 10 delegates and up to five alternates to represent the Cathedral. Delegates elect Diocesan officials, hear reports to the Convention, approve the budget of the Diocese and establish Diocesan policy and procedure by considering and voting on resolutions and approving changes to the Diocesan constitution and canons. Delegates also attend periodic meetings of the Northwest Mission District, comprised of seven Episcopal churches in the region.

Nominating Committee: Trinity's bylaws provide that two non-vestry members from the congregation be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve on the following year's nominating committee.

The Nominating Committee needs your help to propose a slate of new leaders! If you are interested yourself or know a great candidate for the Vestry, Endowment Board, Convention Delegate/Alternate, or next year's nominating committee, please forward that name to Howard Bennett (Chair of the Nominating Committee) at thebennett50@gmail.com, by December 15.

Stewardship Message

"Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above..." James 1:17, NRSV

Dear Trinity Membership:

Over the past 10 weeks, we've heard and read messages from a variety of Trinity Cathedral members. This article will encapsulate a few of those messages that are seminal to our stewardship campaign.

From Marne McKimmey, Daughters of the King member:

Our Stewardship Campaign this year is called "Every Perfect Gift", from James 1:17: "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift is from above . . . This year we are asked to take the worry out of giving to share freely, knowing that every gift we give will be perfect, and from above."

"I can release my thoughts of worry . . . by turning my heart to our Lord Jesus Christ and asking him to inspire my generosity. In doing this, I take myself out of the equation and allow the gift that comes through me to be from above."

From Jim Lamb, Senior Warden:

"Over 2,000 years ago, God gave us that Perfect Gift when Christ was born. It was 'THE' Perfect Gift to the whole world. . . . We have great promise for the future: we have countless opportunities to reach out to our community beyond the walls of this building to provide programs and services that will bring love and joy."

From Nancy Richards, Director of the Sack Lunch Program:

"The Sack Lunch ministry has a history of well over 35 years. In early July of this year, we extended the days of giving out food from three days to five days a week. . . . Our volunteers are the heart of our program not only handing out food but selflessly donating the gifts of their time and talents. . . . So far this year, we have given out more than 5,600 sack lunches."

From Kait Flocchini, Sunday School Teacher, Legal Advisor & Clerk to the Vestry:

"Please know that whatever amount you are able to generously pledge to financially support Trinity is enthusiastically appreciated and supports our ability to give the children of our parish family a warm and sage place within which to grow in God's unconditional love."

From Gary Fuller, Esq., Vestry Member:

"A pledge demonstrates thankfulness for health, family, friends, and all with which we have been blessed, To God's great bounty and grace, we can all attest.

I know what time, talent, and treasure I have is not mine.

In reality, Every Perfect Gift comes from the Divine."

If you have not yet pledged your 'Perfect Gift', please plan to do so as soon as possible. If you've been pledging online, please send in or call David Morgan your intention to continue to do so and include the amount of your pledge for 2022.

With profound thanks to all who have delivered a Ministry Moment and for your generous and very 'Perfect gift'!

Margaret Zuccarini, on Behalf of Your Vestry

Vestry Report

Vestry Minutes Summary—November 23, 2021

The Vestry met using Zoom Meeting. The meeting began with reading of the Cathedral Mission Statement followed by establishment of a quorum at 6:06 PM. The November agenda was amended, and the minutes of the October 19, 2021, Vestry meeting were approved. Financial Matters: Lindsay Campbell, Assistant Treasurer, reviewed the October 2021 financial reports. Terry Cain, Junior Warden, reported the capital Faith Like a River budget for the renovation of the Cathedral building continues under budget. It was noted the project may come in $200,000 under budget. Committee Reports: Terry Cain reported for the Finance and Administration Committee. At the direction of the committee, the Wardens established a compensation policy for Supply Clergy based upon review of other compensation policies by other dioceses. Terry reported the Property Committee has requested a proposal for a new telephone system. In addition, replacement computers have been received for the Christian Education's and Rector/Dean's offices. Jim Lamb, Senior, Warden, reported on behalf of the Cathedral Building Renovation Committee. He noted there is additional electrical work in the chancel area as well as needed information on how to utilize the new outside marquee. Issues with the pew kneelers were also identified. The committee discussed details of memorial plaques that were in the Cathedral as requested by vestry. The committee recommended vestry consider establishing a memorial wall with location to be determined during the planning of the next phase of construction. The committee noted the needed repairs and improvements to the Cathedral carillon and requested more specific information on extent of the repairs and improvements and related costs. Old Business: HolyCow! Consulting: Terry Cain reported that Robyn Strain will provide a written report in approximately two weeks of the weekend meetings with vestry and Cathedral clergy and staff. Transition Information: the wardens will coordinate with the diocese regarding next steps in identifying an interim Rector/Dean. This will involve development of the job description with the assistance of the Canon to the Ordinary, Rev. Catherine Gregg. Canon Catherine will organize the posting of the position as well as screening of candidates. Resumption of Worship: Jim Lamb reported return of the 5 PM Saturday and 7:30 AM Sunday services went well. Canon Ruth celebrated the first weekend of the returned services and Rev. Rick Millsap will officiate this coming weekend. Stewardship: Margaret Zuccarini, stewardship chair, reported receipt of 121 pledges in the amount of $449,982 which is 61% of our projected budget for 2022. While average pledge amounts are up this year, the total number of pledges compared to last year is less. Vestry approved modified COVID protocols for the Saturday 5 PM and the Sunday 7:30 AM service to be the same as those for the Sunday 11 AM service. That protocol requires all attendees be fully masked and fully vaccinated. Vestry approved COVID protocol for the 4 PM Christmas Eve service be vaccinations strongly recommended, fully masked, and social distancing not required. Vestry approved COVID protocol for the 7:30 PM and 11 PM Christmas Eve services require full proof of vaccination or a negative COVID test, fully masked and social distancing not required. Vestry approved COVID protocol for external organizations using our facilities for concerts or events require full proof of vaccination or a negative COVID test 72 hours prior to the event. Masks required, but no social distancing. Howard Bennett, chair of the Nominating Committee reported the committee is working to find nominees for vestry members, one endowment board member, 10 diocesan convention delegates and up to five alternates, and two members to the next nominating committee. Carolyn Hoffman reported on the progress of the Angel Tree project. She noted gifts were being collected 117 children. In addition, a $50 gift card will be given to each family. New Business: the Diocesan Convention will convene via Zoom on Saturday, December 11 at 8:30 AM. A preconvention Zoom meeting to discuss the budget is scheduled for Saturday, December 4 at 9 AM. The Trinity Parish Annual Meeting is set for January 30, 2022, following the last morning service. The Sack Lunch ministry is planning to hold their annual sock drive for the homeless community. Christian Education: because of timing, vestry agreed to conduct an email vote on the Spring Vacation Bible School proposal. Music Ministry: vestry approved Dr. Gary Gordon's request to return full choir with mask and no more than 20 members. However, processional at this time is not approved. The meeting adjourned at 9:08 PM. The next regular meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, December 21, 2021 at 5:30 PM in the parish hall.
