Our mission is to welcome all people to know and live as Christ in the world

July 2021

From the Dean's Pen ...

Dear Members and Friends of Trinity Cathedral,

Grace and Peace be with you from our risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Alleluia! Amen.

As we come into the month of July, I am only too aware that we are basically five to six weeks away from finishing the work with the renovation of our Cathedral. A thorough cleaning then occurs to prepare a dust free space for the return of the Casavant Organ and the installation of the Manwell Memorial Organ for the chapel. Very soon we anticipate our move back into the Cathedral space. We are setting a date of Sunday, September 19th as a grand opening with one worship service to bring us all together to offer thanksgiving for what has been accomplished. Contractors and workers, donors, and parish volunteers are invited as we honor them for their work.

Before all this takes place, we have a lot of work to do; to get things out of storage, art work and furnishings reinstated, and supplies returned to the worship space, crypt and sacristy. We will be working through the Parish Council to have all committee leaders help organize within the parameters of their ministries and recruit helpers with this transition back to the Cathedral. We will also be hiring some folks for the heavy lifting.

Through these days of hopefully seeing the pandemic diminishing and working to maintain safety, we are coming to a most exciting time in our history as we will commemorate the first portion of our renovation work completed. Your continued kindness, patience, and support are deeply appreciated! I thank God for all of you and your witness of faithfulness to our Lord and his ministry in this place. This is a very exciting time for us all!

With gratitude and great blessings,

Father William+

How to Write a Sympathy Card

There are some lovely sympathy cards out there, but sometimes you want to write your own message. Therefore, what follows are some things I have learned over the years from the bereaved folks I met in my hospice work. First of all, try to make your message as little about you as you can. One widow told me that so many of the people who spoke to her after her husband's death expressed so much of their own sorrow, that she found herself in the role of comforting them, rather than the other way around! Although it is old-fashioned, I like "Please accept my sympathies/condolences on the death of _____. " It keeps you in the background since the (implied) subject of the sentence is the bereaved person. "I'm so sorry for your loss," is quite common these days, but you will notice that the subject of that sentence is "I." You can't avoid all mention of yourself because, of course, you are the one writing the note, but keep the focus on the bereaved as much as you can.

Secondly, say something about the deceased. If you knew the person, write about a memory you have, or what trait about them you will always remember, or how they influenced your life. Bereaved people often say that they feel the world should have stopped when their loved one died, and yet life goes on. It is a huge comfort to them to know that others still remember their loved one. If you didn't know the deceased, then, when it is honest, recall some kind thing you have heard from others about them. This of course might be easier if you have attended the funeral or memorial service. And on that note, it's okay to send your note a few weeks after the death, when the stream of cards has slowed and the grief is deepening.

Thirdly, add expressions of encouragement and well-wishes for them as they engage their grief. These will vary depending on the person. You might hope that they are supported by good memories; by people who will listen well and not be afraid their grief; by an abundance of tears and laughter (both release endorphins); by a sure confidence in the resurrection to new life; by courage to both rage against, and trust, God. You know the bereaved person to whom you are writing and no doubt will come up with your own hopes for them.

Most importantly, don't let what I have written above, or any list of "Things Never to Say to the Bereaved," keep you from acknowledging the death. Most grieving people are very forgiving of the sometimes dumb things the rest of us say. They know it's often hard to know what to say that will give comfort and not pain. The bereaved want their grief acknowledged because it is a testimony to the great love they have for their loved one. So, go with your gut. Your own love for the bereaved will be your best guide on how to say good and kind words to suit the particular shape of their grief.

A Call to Prayer

Following recent advice from a spiritual mentor, I have committed to praying daily for our renovation project, and for the many people who'll be involved in making our spaces ready for a full return to worship, education, music, and outreach programs. I invite you to join me in this journey of prayer. I look forward to the ways God will lead us through the process and surprise us with unexpected solutions or open our hearts and minds to completely new ways of doing things post pandemic.

New Sound & Video Ministry Coming Soon!

For most churches across the US, live-streaming worship services and events is now here to stay. Along with our new sound system, high-definition cameras and broadcast equipment are being installed so we may continue to share our worship and ministries online. In order to “staff” these new ministries, I am calling for volunteers who are willing to be trained and excited to serve on a team dedicated to ensuring consistent in-person worship and broadcasts. If you have interest in working in one or both areas, please let me know by sending an email to music@trinityreno.org. Meetings will be planned soon to share more information.

Pipes on the River returns this Fall

I'm pleased to announce that our beloved organ series will resume this Fall. As an introduction to the wider Reno community, I will offer the first recital in the 2021-2022 season, in late October. Angela Kraft Cross will perform on Friday, November 12th. An educational field trip for local students is being explored for December, and Bryan Chuan will perform on January 7, 2022. Also, I'm working closely with our local performing groups like the Nevada Gay Men's Chorus, Bella Voce, and The Reno Chamber Orchestra to schedule concerts for the upcoming season.

Over the past few weeks, it's been a real joy to meet more of Reno's musicians and artists; especially those in the Reno Chamber Orchestra. Recently, I accepted an invitation to serve as guest conductor for the Nevada Gay Men's Chorus, as they kick off Reno's Pride Parade at the end of July. I am grateful for the chance to get to know the members of this ensemble which began at Trinity 11 years ago, and to support their artistic goals.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE A PART OF THE CIRCLE OF FRIENDS?

Circle of Friends is a group of about ten people who commit to daily check-in phone calls with each other. This is how it works: You are given one name to call. You call this person, usually in the morning, but anytime is okay, to check in on them--how they are, what's going on for the day, etc. If for some reason you can't reach your person, there's a system in place to do a further check. In turn, you also receive a phone call from someone who checks in with you. Every so often, the leader of the group switches the names around, so you have a "new" person to call and you have a "new" person checking in with you.

If you would like to join this group, contact Dorothy Walrath, 775-829-0568 or walrath1@aol.com.

ST. PAUL'S FOOD PANTRY

bring your food items to worship service and deposit them as you enter the hall. Your continued financial contributions are welcomed as well. Thank you in advance for whatever you are able to give. It is very much appreciated.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER GROUP

M.C. Escher, Circle Limit with Butterflies, 1950

"I do not know how it works, but when a group of like-minded people committed to the transformative process are together, the force of the energy is certainly up a number of decibels higher. You do not have to do anything but sit still, and let your mind be quiet. Know that God's word is spoken fully only in silence. Be still, and you will know, not by the knowledge of the mind, but by the knowledge of the heart, who God is and who you are."

Bible Study Classes Take a Summer Break

Dear all,

In former times the Ecumenical Bible study group met sixteen times a year; eight during the fall semester and eight in the spring. Because of Covid, we have had twenty-five sessions with only a break for New Year's Day. Since so many Covid restrictions have been lifted for the fully vaccinated (I assume you all are; if not, just do it!), life is getting busier and some normalcy is returning. Hence, we will be taking a summer break. It will give me some time to re-assess and plan the future. Right now I'm planning that we will re-start sometime in September.

We WILL meet on July 2 to finish Joshua, and I'll give some background on the books that follow Joshua in case any of you want to do some summer reading. Thanks for your interest in this group.

Canon Ruth+

Tuesdays' Bible Study Classes at 4:00 PM will take a break for the summer and reconvene in September.

The Sunday Adult Forum Bible Study Class at 9:00 AM will have their final class on Sunday, July 18th, then take a summer break until September.

Thank you.

Covid and Our Response

Taking Our Pulse

Renovation Report

Covid, Vaccinations, and our Response

We continue to have limited attendance with our worship in the parish hall, and especially because we are singing, masks are being required. Some ask, how much longer are we needing to wear masks. Please remember that the Episcopal denomination continues to promote that love and care of our neighbor is first and foremost. We need to continue to keep others safe. The statistics speak for themselves.

The Delta variant that is now in 49 States; Arkansas and Nevada have the highest rates of hospitalizations. Nevada has an increase of 26% and a current fully vaccinated rate of 41.8%.

CBS News on June 28, 2021 reported the following in regard to the Delta variant (Dr. Mallika Marshall):

The Delta variant is more transmissible and may cause more severe disease than previous variants but only 8% of the total number of people infected with the Delta variant in the U.K. had received both doses of vaccine. The majority of those hospitalized were unvaccinated or partially vaccinated, suggesting that the vaccines, though not perfect, are working and cutting down on severe illness.

Q: What does the experience in the U.K. mean for us here in the U.S.?

A: Experts say the U.S. is usually about one-to-two months behind the U.K. in terms of coronavirus cases. Right now the Delta variant makes up about 20% of cases in the U.S. but that number will continue to climb exponentially. Hospitalizations and deaths will be especially bad in pockets of the country where vaccination rates are low.

As of June 29, 2021 these are the statistics from the NV Health Dpt in regard to vaccination levels in our counties:

Carson City 49%; Clark County 40.8%; Douglas County 43%; Lyon County 30.7%; Storey County 16.2%; Washoe 51%

"Taking Our Pulse" Results

Many of you have completed the recent parish-wide survey designed to "take our pulse" and provide a clear picture of who we are as a Cathedral and what directions are most important for our future. The survey data is now being assembled and summarized by HolyCow! Consulting. The Vestry is excited to invite all Trinity members to a special Zoom meeting on Saturday, July 24, at 10:00AM. The consultants will present the results of the survey and answer any questions you may have. We will send the Zoom meeting invitation before the meeting. If you do not have Internet access and would like to participate, please contact the Cathedral office so that space in the conference room can be reserved for you. Thank you for participating so we can build Trinity Episcopal Cathedral's future together!

Renovation Moving Toward Completion

The renovation of the Cathedral worship space moves rapidly toward completion. The new tile flooring in the Nave and Chancel spaces is halfway complete. Restroom fixtures are starting to be installed, and painting is finished. The new air-conditioning system is installed and already functioning. Pew installation begins in mid to late July.

Outside, the Bonnie Jean Richardson Carillon has new lights illuminating the beautiful 35 bells hanging in the tower. Soon, the soaring spire above the belltower will have lights installed. When completed, Trinity's historic presence will become more visible as a landmark in the downtown landscape. In addition, new lighted signage will replace the existing 1940s sign at the corner of Island and Rainbow streets.

Interior renovation completion is anticipated by August 11. The Cathedral's Casavant Frères Pipe Organ reinstallation will begin on August 23. The family of Trinity's former organist Doctor Philip Manwell donated to the Cathedral the pipe organ that was in Doctor Manwell's home, and the organ will be installed in the Bishop Lewis Chapel.

We are beginning plans for a September 19th "Thanksgiving Opening" Eucharist for our first Sunday back!
